

Agata Piśko & Werner Radzik

Polish Touch

„Polish Touch“ - a chic collection of jazz songs with Werner Radzik - piano, Agata Piśko - voice, and two special guests: Axel Mayer - trumpet and fluegelhorn, and Bernhard Wimmer - cajon.

Songs of singers and piano players such as Joni Mitchell, Keith Jarrett, Radka Toneff, Billy Strayhorn, Djavan, Johnny Mercer, Emanuel Schlechter have inspired Agata Piśko and Werner Radzik to create an elegant and intimate project of piano and voice. Agata's delicate and flexible voice has a unique fancy flavor of a European singer who sings lyrics from the Great American Songbook. With no doubt, however, you can hear the influence of the jazz masters Agata had a chance to study with, such as Mark Murphy, Sheila Jordan, Madeline Eastman, Rebecca Parris.

Inspired by sound and structure of jazz vocal music, Agata has begun to compose music and write clever lyrics on her own. On this record, you are going to find two compositions of hers: a jazz waltz with a Polish lyric and a touch of Polish folk music „Czy to jest miłość?“, and a boogaloo 'Time Economy'.

Werner Radzik is with no doubt a first class jazz instrumentalist, a highly sought after pianist and arranger. On this CD you will get to know him as being a careful accompanist and a brilliant soloist.

To make the music more intense, Agata and Werner invited some of the finest Austrian musicians to be featured in a few songs. You will hear fabulous Axel Mayer on trumpet and fluegelhorn in the ballad „Then I'll Be Tired Of You“ and „Time Economy“, and expressive Bernhard Wimmer on cajon in „Time Economy“ and in the jazz waltz „Czy to jest miłość?“.

„Polish Touch“ is a fresh project of two experienced musicians with Polish roots: Agata originally comes from Krakow and has lived in Austria since the beginning of her studies at Kunst Uni Graz in 1999; Werner, an Austrian musician, on the other hand, has had Polish ancestors - his grandmother came from Warsaw.
