Rock Thru Ages

"Rock Thru Ages" is the brand new album by Austrian melodic hard rockers Badhoven. It documents the band's musical journey through two centuries and is much more than just a contemporary document.

The band formerly known as "Black Rose" released their first album in 1996. And the three founding members Kurt Christian, Gerhard Paar and Gerd Sojka remained true to their musical line for more than two decades. The current line-up with Flo Verant on bass and Günter Schablas on lead guitar led the band to add four remixes and two live songs to this great album.

All 16 selected songs appear timeless. Absolutely up-to-date are the band and the production made by Reinhard "Bux" Brunner, which gave this latest album of Badhoven something almost eternal.
