Celebrating the Joy of Life

Already at our 25th anniversary we allowed ourselves the luxury as a sax quartet to live out an extension of our core competencies as a sax ensemble with bass/drums.

After "25 years of joy and fun", "Saxofour celebrating the Joy of Life!" is simply one of the following chapters of a long musician friendship in which the quality of putting the ensemble on a higher level than one's own ego is truly lived out.

Everyone has opened his treasure chest and again conjured out new compositions, each in his own distinctive way, just as we have been doing for 29 years in the spirit of the sunshine of variety.

Robert Riegler (bass) and Wolfi Rainer (drums) are truly crazy enough to put themselves in the studio and on stage with 4 sax players, and we enjoy their incomparable way of dealing with our music.

We are still far away from the end of our possibilities for sure, about exactly 243 kg of note paper or 27 sound clouds, rather each and every one of you wins the lottery than that we can't think of anything more.
