TU LLEGADA

Endrina Rosales Group

The singer, songwriter and flutist Endrina Rosales Rodriguez was born in Venezuela. At the age from 13 till 17 years she played the part of the first flutist in the symphonic orchestra of "Jose Felix Rivas" (Venezuela). Since 1994 Endrina has been living in Austria, at the beginning in Vienna then in Graz. There she finished her studies at the University of Music and Dramatic Arts Graz with an academic degree.

Endrina's stations of life become acoustic in her music. Equipped with Venezuelan folk-music roots, the professional handling of a classical flute player and her love and respect for Jazz and Pop she formed her band the Endrina Rosales Group. There she finds her productive space to work creatively as a musician and songwriter. Rooted in her believe and life-philosophy she enters new musical ways always bewaring authenticity in music. A mixture of Pop, Jazz & Latin and rich rhythmic versatility form a unique sound of the Endrina Rosales Group that you shouldn't miss live.

Endrina played in Bulgaria, Italy, Poland, Switzerland, England, Germany, Hungary, Israel, Venezuela and Austria. She's not only known as an excellent classical flute-player she's known as a stunning vocal performer in groups like Latin Company (Ismael Barrios), Sanmera, Los Serenos and the Endrina Rosales Group.

She will be on CD-Release tour entitled "Tu Llegada" in spring 2010.

The pianist and composer Werner Radzik writes the music for the Endrina Rosales Group and plays keyboards in her band. Her great musicians are Patrick Zambonin (b), Ismael Barrios (perc) and Harry Tanschek (dr).
