Be Now Here

Eurasia - Be Now Here

Ten pieces of music originated from intensive test work and present own compositions as well as traditionals from Korea, India and the Alpine space.

The album points like different music traditions in an unexpectedly refreshing way with each other can melt and a musical bridge is tight between East and Occident.

The ensemble founded in 2009 EURASIA, with Claudia Haarfee Nussbaumer, amazingly grooving sounding harpist, Klaus Falschlunger, sitar player and with it one of few Europe and Paul Heis in the most different woodwinds, Percussions and song, stretches with impressive style variety and happy ease a contemporary curve between the east and west. The careful combination of acoustic and electronic sounds proves a worldwide unique sound picture in a globalized music present. Own compositions, influenced by numerous tours and international study trips of the musicians, alternate with traditionals from "Eurasia".

With refreshing arrangements, passionate improvisations and virtuoso presentations the formation touches the wealth, the depth and expressiveness of different music traditions and enthusiastically with it the whole audience.

Fascinating and, persuasive, besides, the ingenuity in the creation of the mostly modal pieces. With refreshing openness the musicians demonstrate her view of the world music, they deliver sounds them are relaxing, carry away and surprise. The amount him this CD costs is put on very well in an enlarged world music concept.
