

Y- Project – Christoph Köpf, Siegfried Loidl Go For It

The two musicians Christoph Köpf and Siegfried Loidl from Upper Austria present the new CD production "GO FOR IT" as formation "the y-project".

y-project stands for the bringing together of creative energies and the collaboration of Köpf with musicians of different genres, with whom he has already realised various CD productions in the past ("the y-project", 2011, ats CD-0740, CD "THE PILGRIM SOUL", 2006).

The album, released by ATS-Records in January 2019, was arranged and produced by the two musicians with a special love for sound and great musical devotion. Especially noteworthy is the successful mix of electronic sounds, e-guitar, drums with the completely natural sounds of jew's harp, fujara and frame drum, as well as the mixture of fresh and accentuated tempo reduced numbers.

Again and again Loidl and Köpf conquer new sound spaces together, partly underlaid with meditative rhythms without ever losing tension. Köpf delivers to many tracks with his frame drums powerful, always strongly present, almost captivating beats that resemble the musical heartbeat inside the music.

Partially completely decelerated musical concepts invite you to let yourself fall into a listening experience in which time seems to stand still, a musical meditation opens into a kind of intermediate world. In this way, the musicians create extreme antitheses to current social trends, in which the wheels seem to turn ever faster.
