

Adam Baruch - The Soundtrack Of My Life

Autor/in Kontaktiere uns

adambaruch.com

Adam Baruch - The Soundtrack Of My Life

1 Std. ·

Frank Fusion Trio – “My Place”

This is the second album by the Austrian ensemble Frank Fusion Trio, which is rather confusing as the ensemble has no less than eight members: keyboardist Fabian Mang, bassist Stefano Delorenzo and drummer Philipp Bindreiter (the trio), expanded with saxophonist Michael Erian, trumpeter Daniel Nosig, guitarist Armin Polsinger, violinist Anja Wobak-Eder and cellist Jana Thomaschutz. The album presents ten original compositions, eight by Mang and two by Erian.

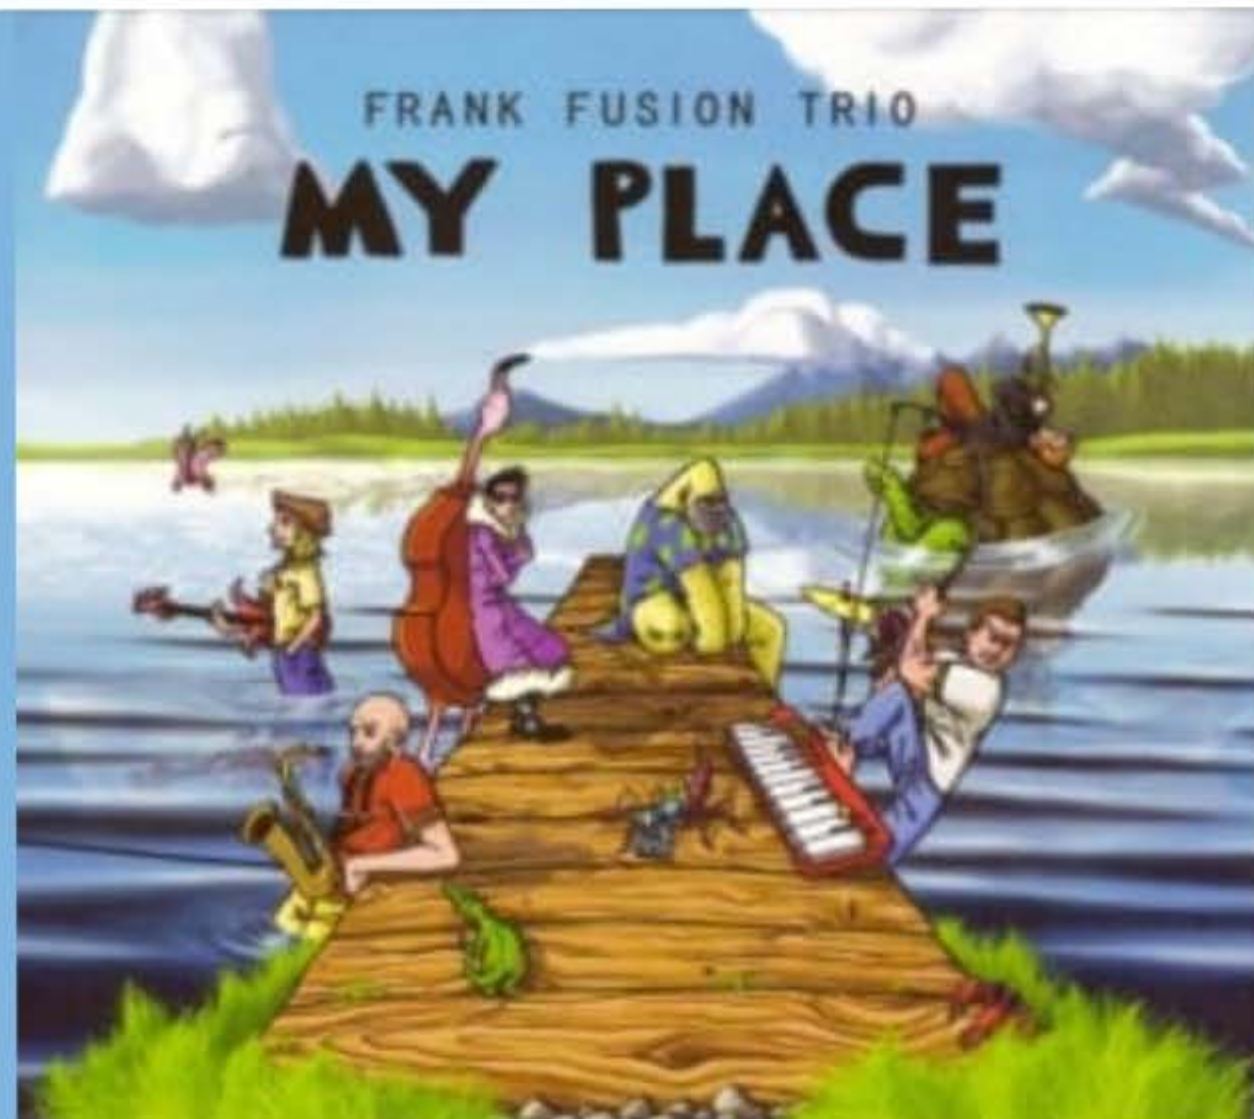

The music is highly melodic and offers expanded compositions, which eschew exact pinpointing stylistically, making everything interesting of course. There is plenty of Jazz-Rock Fusion, but also other genres like Funk or Symphonic Progressive Rock, Classical Music orchestration etc. in short never a dull moment.

As such, this album is really quite universal and could be enjoyed by a wide range of listeners, between Fusion to Brass Rock and Funky Jazz. Normally such diversity could cause a lot of confusion and a lack of focus, but this music works well and the variety adds a lot of spicing.

The individual contributions are all excellent and the compositions are all solid and coherent, and as a result this is a very pleasant listening experience, without losing any musical integrity. Highly recommended to listeners, who like the lighter spectrum of Jazz / Fusion, which can still be intellectually stimulating!

http://www.adambaruch.com/reviews_item.asp?item=107034

#AdamBaruch #RecordReviews #MusicCriticism #JazzRockFusion #Fusion #BrassRock #AustrianJazz #AustrianFusion #EuropeanFusion

Du und 1 weitere Person

1 Kommentar 29 Mal geteilt

Gefällt mir

Kommentieren

Teilen